15 GAIL STRUTHERS, an individual,
16 Plaintiff,

17 v.

18 UBS FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC., a
19 corporation; and DOES 1 through 10,
20 inclusive,
21 Defendants.

CASE NO. '08 CV 1381 J JMA

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF CIVIL
ACTION PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C.
§ 1441
[Diversity Jurisdiction]

22 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant UBS FINANCIAL SERVICES
23 INC. (improperly pled as "UBS Financial Services, Inc.") ("Defendant"),
24 contemporaneously with the filing of this Notice, is effecting the removal of the 25 above-captioned action from the Superior Court of the State of California for the 26 County of San Diego to the United States District Court for the Southern District
27 of California.

28 I. PLEADINGS, PROCESS, AND ORDERS

1. On or about March 3, 2008, Plaintiff Gail Struthers ("Plaintiff") commenced the above-entitled action in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Diego by filing a complaint therein entitled Gail

ORIGINAL

1 Struthers, an individual, v. UBS Financial Services, Inc., a corporation, and DOES
2 1 through 10, inclusive, Case No. 37-2008-00079382-CU-BT-CTL. The original
3 complaint was never served. Thereafter, on or about June 27, 2008, Plaintiff filed
4 a First Amended Complaint bearing the same Case Number: ("FAC"). The FAC
5 purports to state causes of action for: (1) intentional misrepresentation; (2)
6 negligent misrepresentation; (3) violation of Plaintiff's rights under the California
7 Fair Employment and Housing Law; (4) invasion of privacy; (5) intentional
8 infliction of emotional distress; (6) breach of implied covenant of good fair and fair
9 dealing; (7) partial rescission; and (8) unlawfully preventing employment by 10 misrepresentation. True and correct copies of the Summons, First Amended
11 Complaint, and Civil Case Cover Sheet are attached hereto collectively as Exhibit 12 1.

13 2. On or about July 1, 2008, the Summons, Complaint, and First
14 Amended Complaint were served on Defendant's agent for service.

15 3. On or about July 28, 2008, Defendant filed and served its Answer to 16 the FAC. A true and correct copy of the Answer is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

17 4. Exhibits 1 and 2 constitute all the process, pleadings and orders
18 delivered on any party in the Superior Court action.

19 II. DIVERSITY JURISDICTION

20 5. This action is a civil action of which this Court has original diversity
21 jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §1332, and is one which may be removed to the 22 United States District Court by Defendant pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C.
23 § 1441(b) in that it is a civil action in which the matter in controversy exceeds the 24 sum of $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs, and is between citizens of 25 different states.

26 A. Citizenship

27 6. Defendant is informed and believes that Plaintiff was at the time of 28 the filing of this action and at the time of removal, and still is, and at all relevant

1 times has been a citizen of the State of California. Exhibit 1, FAC ¶ 1.

2 7. Defendant was, at the time of the filing of this action and at the time
3 of removal, and still is, and at all relevant times has been a corporation formed
4 under the laws of the state of Delaware, and has its principal place of business in 5 New Jersey. Defendant, therefore, is a citizen of New Jersey. FAC ¶ 2.

6 B. Fictitious Does

7 8. Defendants Does 1 through 10 are wholly fictitious. The Complaint
8 does not set forth the identity or the status of any said fictitious defendants, nor 9 does it set forth any charging allegation against any fictitious defendants. The 10 naming of the fictitious defendants does not destroy the diversity of citizenship
11 between the parties in this action. 28 U.S.C. section 1441(a).

12 C. Amount in Controversy

13 9. The amount in controversy in this matter exceeds the sum or value of 14 $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs. It is well settled that, in determining 15 whether a Complaint meets the $75,000.00 threshold amount in controversy set
16 forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a), a court should consider the aggregate amount of the 17 claims and value of the claims. Wolde-Meskel v. Vocational Instruction Project, 18 166 F.3d 59, 62 (2nd Cir. 1999) (diversity statute confers jurisdiction over entire 19 action, not just specific claims alleged in complaint, and, therefore, claims of 20 single plaintiff are aggregated in order to satisfy amount in controversy). The fact
21 that a Complaint fails to specify the amount of damages in a dollar amount does
22 not deprive this Court of jurisdiction. See White v. J.C. Penney Life Ins. Co., 861
23 F. Supp. 25, 26 (S.D. W.Va. 1994) (defendant may remove suit to federal court
24 notwithstanding the failure of Plaintiff to plead a specific dollar amount in 25 controversy; if the rules were otherwise, "any plaintiff could avoid removal simply 26 by declining to place a specific dollar claim upon its claim.") Defendant need only
27 establish by a preponderance of the evidence that Plaintiff's claim is likely to 28 exceed the jurisdictional minimum. Sanchez v. Monumental Life Ins. Co., 102

1 F.3d 398, 404 (9th Cir. 1996); Singer v. State Farm Mutual Auto. Ins. Co., 116 F.3d
2 373, 376 (9th Cir. 1997).

3 10. Here, Plaintiff seeks recovery on several fronts, including
4 compensatory damages for alleged lost past and future wages which she claims is
5 approximately $300,000 annually, $132,239 in forfeited stock, and for emotional
6 distress. FAC ¶¶ 7, 19, 39, 42, 72, 35 (sic), 36 (sic), 76. Plaintiff does not limit the 7 amount of damages she is seeking.

8 11. In her FAC, Plaintiff alleges that she was earning more than $300,000
9 with her prior employer, that she was induced to leave her prior employer based on
10 Defendant's alleged fraud and negligent misrepresentations, that Defendant
11 terminated her employment in May, 2007 and that Defendant's conduct has 12 prevented her from ever obtaining employment in the securities industry. FAC
13 ¶ 42.

14 12. Plaintiff also specifically alleges that due to the discharge or her
15 employment by Defendant, she forfeited $132, 239 in stock. FAC ¶ 39.

16 13. In determining the amount in controversy for diversity and removal
17 jurisdiction, great weight is given to a plaintiff's assessment of the value of his or 18 her case. Burns v. Windsor Ins. Co., 31 F.3d 1092, 1094 (11th Cir. 1994); Albright
19 v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 531 F.2d 132, 135 (3rd Cir. 1976). A court
20 considering the issue of removal will assume that the plaintiff's counsel best 21 knows the value of his or her client's case and is not engaging in deception in 22 representing the plaintiff's damages. Burns v. Windsor Ins. Co., supra, 31 F.3d at 23 1095. "There is a strong presumption that the plaintiff has not claimed a large 24 amount in order to confer jurisdiction on a federal court or that the parties have 25 colluded to that end." Albright v. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., supra, 531 F.2d at 26 135.

27 14. Plaintiffs alleging emotional distress as a result of wrongful
28 termination regularly seek in excess of $75,000.00 in such damages.

1 15. Plaintiff's request for attorneys' fees may also be taken into account
2 to determine jurisdictional amounts. Goldberg v. C.P.C. International, Inc., 678
3 F.2d 1365, 1367 (9th Cir. 1982). Plaintiff seeks an unspecified amount of 4 attorneys' fees. (Exhibit 1, Plaintiff's Prayer for Relief in FAC).

5 16. Considering the aggregate value of Plaintiff's claims, the amount in
6 controversy is in excess of $75,000.00. Therefore, the amount in controversy
7 requirement of 28 U.S.C. § 1332 has been met, and this action is removable to this
8 Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441.

9 17. Accordingly, this Court has original "diversity" jurisdiction over this
10 action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because complete diversity of citizenship exists
11 between Plaintiff and Defendant, and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000,
12 exclusive of interest and costs.

13 III. VENUE

14 18. Venue is proper in this district under U.S.C. § 1441(a) because the 15 state court where the action is pending is located in this district.

16 IV. TIMELINESS OF REMOVAL

17 19. This Notice of Removal is timely filed in that this Notice has been 18 filed within thirty (30) days of service of the Summons and First Amended
19 Complaint on Defendant and within one year of the filing of the First Amended
20 Complaint. 28 U.S.C. § 1446. The First Amended Complaint was served on 21 Defendant on July 1, 2008. Thirty days from that is July 31, 2008.

22 ///

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 20. For all the foregoing reasons, this Court has original jurisdiction under
2 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332 and 1441(b).

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT:
(AVISO AL DEMANDADO):

UBS FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC., a corporation; and DOES 1
through 10, inclusive

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF:
(LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):

GAIL STRUTHERS

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de costos. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales.

CASES ASSIGNED TO THE PROBATE DIVISION ARE NOT REQUIRED TO COMPLY WITH THE CIVIL REQUIREMENTS LISTED BELOW.

IT IS THE DUTY OF EACH PLAINTIFF (AND CROSS-COMPLAINANT) TO SERVE A COPY OF THIS NOTICE WITH THE COMPLAINT (AND CROSS-COMPLAINT).

ALL COUNSEL WILL BE EXPECTED TO BE FAMILIAR WITH SUPERIOR COURT RULES WHICH HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED AS DIVISION II, AND WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED.

TIME STANDARDS: The following timeframes apply to general civil cases and must be adhered to unless you have requested and been granted an extension of time. General civil consists of all cases except: Small claims appeals, petitions, and unlawful detainers.

COMPLAINTS: Complaints must be served on all named defendants, and a CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE (SDSC CIV-345) filed within 60 days of filing. This is a mandatory document and may not be substituted by the filing of any other document.

DEFENDANT'S APPEARANCE: Defendant must generally appear within 30 days of service of the complaint (Plaintiff may stipulate to no more than a 15 day extension which must be in writing and filed with the Court.)

DEFAULT: If the defendant has not generally appeared and no extension has been granted, the plaintiff must request default within 45 days of the filing of the Certificate of Service.

THE COURT ENCOURAGES YOU TO CONSIDER UTILIZING VARIOUS ALTERNATIVES TO LITIGATION, INCLUDING MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION, PRIOR TO THE CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE. MEDIATION SERVICES ARE AVAILABLE UNDER THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROGRAMS ACT AND OTHER PROVIDERS. SEE ADR INFORMATION PACKET AND STIPULATION.

YOU MAY ALSO BE ORDERED TO PARTICIPATE IN ARBITRATION PURSUANT TO CCP 1141.10 AT THE CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE. THE FEE FOR THESE SERVICES WILL BE PAID BY THE COURT IF ALL PARTIES HAVE APPEARED IN THE CASE AND THE COURT ORDERS THE CASE TO ARBITRATION PURSUANT TO CCP 1141.10. THE CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU FILE FORM SDSC CIV-359 PRIOR TO THAT HEARING

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

CASE NUMBER: 37-2008-00079382-CU-BT-CTL CASE TITLE: Struthers vs. UBS Financial Services Inc

NOTICE TO LITIGANTS/ADR INFORMATION PACKAGE

You are required to serve a copy of this Notice to Litigants/ADR Information Package and a copy of the blank Stipulation to Alternative Dispute Resolution Process (received from the Civil Business Office at the time of filing) with a copy of the Summons and Complaint on all defendants in accordance with San Diego Superior Court Rule 2.1.5, Division II and CRC Rule 201.9.

ADR POLICY

It is the policy of the San Diego Superior Court to strongly support the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") in all general civil cases. The court has long recognized the value of early case management intervention and the use of alternative dispute resolution options for amenable and eligible cases. The use of ADR will be discussed at all Case Management Conferences. It is the court's expectation that litigants will utilize some form of ADR - i.e. the court's mediation or arbitration programs or other available private ADR options as a mechanism for case settlement before trial.

ADR OPTIONS

1) CIVIL MEDIATION PROGRAM: The San Diego Superior Court Civil Mediation Program is designed to assist parties with the early resolution of their dispute. All general civil independent calendar cases, including construction defect, complex and eminent domain cases are eligible to participate in the program. Limited civil collection cases are not eligible at this time. San Diego Superior Court Local Rule 2.31, Division II addresses this program specifically. Mediation is a non-binding process in which a trained mediator 1) facilitates communication between disputants, and 2) assists parties in reaching a mutually acceptable resolution of all or part of their dispute. In this process, the mediator carefully explores not only the relevant evidence and law, but also the parties' underlying interests, needs and priorities. The mediator is not the decision-maker and will not resolve the dispute - the parties do. Mediation is a flexible, informal and confidential process that is less stressful than a formalized trial. It can also save time and money, allow for greater client participation and allow for more flexibility in creating a resolution.

Assignment to Mediation, Cost and Timelines: Parties may stipulate to mediation at any time up to the CMC or may stipulate to mediation at the CMC. Mediator fees and expenses are split equally by the parties, unless otherwise agreed. Mediators on the court's approved panel have agreed to the court's payment schedule for county-referred mediation: $150.00 per hour for each of the first two hours and their individual rate per hour thereafter. Parties may select any mediator, however, the court maintains a panel of court-approved mediators who have satisfied panel requirements and who must adhere to ethical standards. All court-approved mediator fees and other policies are listed in the Mediator Directory at each court location to assist parties with selection. Discovery: Parties do not need to conduct full discovery in the case before mediation is considered, utilized or referred. Attendance at Mediation: Trial counsel, parties and all persons with full authority to settle the case must personally attend the mediation, unless excused by the court for good cause.

2) JUDICIAL ARBITRATION: Judicial Arbitration is a binding or non-binding process where an arbitrator applies the law to the facts of the case and issues an award. The goal of judicial arbitration is to provide parties with an adjudication that is earlier, faster, less formal and less expensive than trial. The arbitrator's award may either become the judgment in the case if all parties accept or if no trial de novo is requested within the required time. Either party may reject the award and request a trial de novo before the assigned judge if the arbitration was non-binding. If a trial de novo is requested, the trial will usually be scheduled within a year of the filing date.

Assignment to Arbitration, Cost and Timelines: Parties may stipulate to binding or non-binding judicial arbitration or the judge may order the matter to arbitration at the case management conference, held approximately 150 days after filing, if a case is valued at under $50,000 and is "at issue". The court maintains a panel of approved judicial arbitrators who have practiced law for a minimum of five years and who have a certain amount of trial and/or arbitration experience. In addition, if parties select an arbitrator from the court's panel, the court will pay the arbitrator's fees. Superior Court

3) SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES: The goal of a settlement conference is to assist the parties in their efforts to negotiate a settlement of all or part of the dispute. Parties may, at any time, request a settlement conference before the judge assigned to their case; request another assigned judge or a pro tem to act as settlement officer; or may privately utilize the services of a retired judge. The court may also order a case to a mandatory settlement conference prior to trial before the court's assigned Settlement Conference judge.

4) OTHER VOLUNTARY ADR: Parties may voluntarily stipulate to private ADR options outside the court system including private binding arbitration, private early neutral evaluation or private judging at any time by completing the "Stipulation to Alternative Dispute Resolution Process" which is included in this ADR package. Parties may also utilize mediation services offered by programs that are partially funded by the county's Dispute Resolution Programs Act. These services are available at no cost or on a sliding scale based on need. For a list of approved DRPA providers, please contact the County's DRPA program office at (619) 238-2400.

ADDITIONAL ADR INFORMATION: For more information about the Civil Mediation Program, please contact the Civil Mediation Department at (619) 515-8908. For more information about the Judicial Arbitration Program, please contact the Arbitration Office at (619) 531-3818. For more information about Settlement Conferences, please contact the Independent Calendar department to which your case is assigned. Please note that staff can only discuss ADR options and cannot give legal advice.

25 2. Defendant, UBS FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC. ("UBS," not in italics), is and at

1 business in the County of San Diego.

2 3. Plaintiff does not know the true names and capacities, whether individual,
3 corporate, partnership or otherwise, of each of the Defendants designated herein as
4 DOES 1 through 10 at this time and sue said defendants herein under fictitious names.
5 Each of them is a resident of and/or transacts business in the State of California.
6 Plaintiff will ask leave of court for permission to amend this complaint to show the true
7 names and capacities of said DOES when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 8 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Defendants is indebted
9 to Plaintiff as hereinafter alleged, and that Plaintiff's rights against such fictitiously
10 named DOE Defendants arise from such indebtedness. Whenever reference is made
11 herein to named Defendant UBS, said reference shall include these fictitiously named
12 Doe Defendants.

13 4. With respect to each allegation contained herein that is alleged on plaintiff's 14 information and belief, said allegations are likely to have evidentiary support after 15 Plaintiff is given a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery.

16 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that each of 17 Defendants DOES 1 through 10 was the agent, partner, servant and/or employee of
18 each of the other Defendants, and acted or failed to act as herein alleged in the course
19 and scope of said agency, authority, partnership, and/or employment.

20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Intentional Misrepresentation)

22 (As Against All Defendants)

23 6. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, above,
24 and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

25 7. Before March 7, 2006, plaintiff was a securities broker employed at Morgan
26 Stanley, with $55 million in assets under management. Plaintiff was generating
27 approximately $500,000 per year in revenue, from which her take-home compensation
28 was over $300,000 per year, plus benefits and pension & 401-K contributions. She was

COMPLAINT

1 the No. 1 revenue-producing broker for her years of experience in Morgan Stanley, and,
2 in that capacity, spoke at Morgan Stanley's annual national conference in 2005.

3 8. To induce plaintiff to resign from Morgan Stanley and become employed by
4 UBS, Defendant UBS made numerous material representations. UBS intended that 5 plaintiff would rely on said representations and would resign from her employment with 6 Morgan Stanley and become employed by UBS.

7 9. Plaintiff justifiably relied on UBS's said material representations and, as a
8 result, resigned from her employment with Morgan Stanley and became employed by 9 UBS.

10 10. Unknown to plaintiff, said representations were false and UBS knew them to 11 be false when the representations were made.

12 11. In the alternative, said representations were false and UBS knew or by the 13 exercise of reasonable care should have known that it did not know whether said
14 representations were true or false.

15 12. When UBS made certain of said representations to plaintiff, UBS was duty
16 bound to speak the whole truth known to it concerning such matters, for where one
17 speaks as to a specific subject, he must speak the whole truth in making such 18 representation to the end that he does not conceal any facts which materially qualify
19 those stated, for one who is asked for information must be truthful, and the telling of a 20 half-truth calculated to deceive is fraud.

21 13. In the alternative, when UBS made such representations to plaintiff, UBS was 22 duty bound to speak the whole truth known to it concerning such matters in that UBS
23 had exclusive knowledge of material facts not known to plaintiff and UBS knew that
24 these material facts were unknown to, or were beyond the reach of, plaintiff.

25 14. In the alternative, when Defendants made such representations to plaintiff,
26 UBS was duty bound to speak the whole truth known to it concerning such matters in
27 that UBS as prospective employer had a fiduciary or quasi-fiduciary duty of disclosure
28 to a prospective employee under the circumstances alleged herein.

-3-

COMPLAINT

1 15. Had plaintiff known that said representations were false, she would not have
2 resigned from her employment with Morgan Stanley and would not have agreed to be
3 employed by UBS.

4 16. As a proximate result of the foregoing, plaintiff has suffered damages in an
5 amount to be proven at trial.

6 17. Based on the foregoing, UBS's aforementioned conduct constituted willful and
7 intentional misrepresentations, deceit, or concealment of material facts known to
8 Defendants within the meaning of Civil Code § 1572. UBS engaged in said conduct in 9 conscious disregard of plaintiff's rights, and in violation of Civil Code §§1709 and 3343.
10 Accordingly, Defendant's conduct justifies an award of exemplary and punitive
11 damages.

12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Negligent Misrepresentation)

14 (As Against All Defendants)

15 18. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5 and 7
16 through 16 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

17 19. When UBS made the said representations, it had no reasonable grounds for 18 believing them to be true.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (For Violation of Plaintiff's Rights Under the California Fair Employment and 21 Housing Law)

22 (As Against All Defendants)

23 20. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5 and 7
24 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

25 21. During plaintiff's employment at Morgan Stanley, she became acquainted with
26 Mr. Toby Ferner (herein, "Ferner"), another broker employed by Morgan Stanley.

27 22. Ferner left the employment of Morgan Stanley to become the manager of 28 UBS's Carlsbad, California office. At all times mentioned herein, Ferner was Vice

-4-

COMPLAINT

1 President and Branch Manager of UBS's Carlsbad, California office.

2 23. In 2006, Ferner approached plaintiff with a proposal that she move from
3 Morgan Stanley to UBS.

4 24. At all times during her career with Morgan Stanley, plaintiff had and still has a
5 mental disability, commonly known as 'bi-polar disorder.' That disability is controllable
6 with medication that plaintiff takes and posed no difficulty at Morgan Stanley, where
7 plaintiff was permitted to work from her home when necessary either because of the bi-
8 polar disorder or because plaintiff has children that she must care for.

9 25. Before becoming employed by UBS, plaintiff informed Ferner of the bi-polar
10 disorder and of her occasional need to work from home due to it and due to her
11 children. Plaintiff further informed Ferner that, for these reasons, plaintiff would
12 occasionally need to work and place customers' orders from her home. In the course of 13 dealings that led to her employment with UBS, Ferner represented that UBS would
14 accommodate plaintiff's said need to work and place customers' orders from her home.

15 26. On or about March 7, 2006, the plaintiff commenced employment with UBS as
16 a financial advisor in its Carlsbad, California office.

17 27. Approximately simultaneous with plaintiff's commencement of employment,
18 UBS also hired a financial advisor whose first name is Mike, but whose full name and
19 location are currently unknown to plaintiff.

20 28. In or about the spring and early summer of 2006, Mike engaged a course of 21 sexual harassment of plaintiff and other female employees in UBS's Carlsbad,
22 California office. Mike engaged in said harassment with the actual and constructive
23 knowledge and consent of Defendant UBS.

24 29. Mike's sexual harassment of the plaintiff consisted of sexual advances and
25 demands, sexual assault, and sexually degrading remarks to plaintiff. Mike engaged in
26 similar conduct with respect to other women in UBS's Carlsbad, California office.

27 30. Within approximately one month after being hired, plaintiff began complaining
28 to Ferner about the above sexual harassment of plaintiff and other female employees in

1 UBS's Carlsbad, California office. Ferner took no action with respect to Mike's sexual
2 harassment and, when plaintiff complained that Mike sexually assaulted her, Ferber
3 stated that plaintiff could "take it" or could "take care of [herself]" or words to that effect.

4 31. In retaliation for plaintiff's complaints about Mike's sexual harassment, Ferner
5 on behalf of UBS took numerous actions against plaintiff which eventually resulted in an
6 environment in the Carlsbad office that was so hostile to plaintiff that plaintiff was
7 unable to continue working in that office. These included, but are not limited to the
8 following: Ferner violated plaintiff's medical privacy, both within the office and outside.
9 Disclosures concerning plaintiff's medical condition were made to plaintiff's Sales
10 Assistant. In addition, UBS disclosed a series of adverse communications about
11 plaintiff's personnel status to her Sales Assistant who then sent them to plaintiff. The
12 said violations of privacy as to plaintiff's Sales Assistant not only made it impossible for
13 plaintiff to work with the Sales Assistant, but also subjected plaintiff to humiliation and
14 ridicule, and caused plaintiff to become a virtual pariah among the staff that plaintiff
15 depended on. In addition, Ferner made defamatory statements about plaintiff to people
16 in other securities firms, and to at least one of plaintiff's customers. On information and
17 belief, plaintiff further alleges that Ferner made defamatory innuendos about her to 18 others. When plaintiff asked that Ferner honor the agreement that UBS would
19 accommodate her need to work and place orders from her home Ferner refused. This
20 refusal continued even after plaintiff's doctor sent UBS a letter in September 2006
21 stating that due to plaintiff's medical disability and the environment in the Carlsbad
22 office, she needed to work from home. Another example of the retaliation was that
23 Ferner began dealing directly with plaintiff's customers and attempted to persuade them
24 to switch their accounts to Ferner or to other brokers in the office.

25 32. As a result of the foregoing and other wrongful conduct by Ferner and UBS,
26 plaintiff entered treatment and continues to be treated for mental disability due to the
27 foregoing events. On or about October 31, 2006, plaintiff wrote to Ferner (i) describing
28 the foregoing and other intolerable working conditions and UBS's numerous breaches

1 of agreements, (ii) informing him that these matters had caused plaintiff to suffer mental
2 disability and (iii) that plaintiff's physician had advised that she was not to return to work
3 under the existing working conditions. Despite the October 31, 2006 letter and Ferner's
4 knowledge that the medical disability prevented plaintiff from reporting for work in his
5 office, Ferner continued to retaliate against plaintiff by repeatedly insisting that she
6 report to work by certain specific dates. This continued even after plaintiff's physician
7 submitted a letter from my doctor advising that plaintiff was disabled and unable to
8 report for work.

9 33. Ultimately, plaintiff was placed on leave status and continued in that status from 10 January 2007 through mid-May 2007. UBS provided plaintiff no documentation as to 11 the leave status or its length or expiration date. There was no communication between 12 plaintiff and UBS during the period of January 2007 through mid-May 2007.

13 34. From January 2007 through May 2007 and thereafter continuing to this date,
14 plaintiff has been under treatment for mental disability by her physician and mental
15 health professionals, including psychiatrists. Plaintiff's mental disability increased in
16 severity to the point that she was hospitalized from May 11 through May 17, 2007.

17 35. During that hospitalization, UBS on May 14, 2007, wrote to plaintiff stating that
18 her medical leave had expired on May 1, 2007, that she was required to report for work
19 in Ferner's office on that date, that she failed to report, and that, as a result, she was
20 being discharged from UBS's employment, effective May 15, 2007.

21 36. On May 25, 2007, UBS made written demand that plaintiff repay a promissory
22 note that was supposed to be forgiven if UBS discharged plaintiff due to disability.

23 37. UBS, by its aforesaid conduct, has violated plaintiff's rights under the California
24 Fair Employment and Housing Act.

25 38. As a direct and proximate result of UBS's conduct, plaintiff has suffered
26 damage in an amount to be proved at trial.

27 39. Plaintiff has filed charges of discrimination with the California Department of 28 Fair Employment and Housing and has received a right to sue letter, a copy of which is

1 attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

2 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 (Invasion of Privacy)

4 (As Against All Defendants)

5 40. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, 7 and 21
6 through 36 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

7 41. UBS's disclosures of private information concerning plaintiff's medical disability
8 and personnel matters violated plaintiff's privacy.

9 42. The disclosure by defendant was a public disclosure.

10 43. The facts disclosed about plaintiff were private facts that plaintiff desired to 11 keep private.

12 44. The disclosure by defendant of the above facts was offensive and 13 objectionable to plaintiff and to a reasonable person of ordinary sensibilities.

14 45. The private facts disclosed by defendant were not of legitimate public concern,
15 or newsworthy.

16 46. As a proximate result of the above disclosure, plaintiff was scorned and 17 abandoned by her business associates, exposed to contempt and ridicule, and suffered
18 loss of reputation and standing in the community, all of which caused her general
19 damage in an amount according to proof.

20 47. As a further proximate result of the above-mentioned disclosure, plaintiff has 21 suffered injury to her business and employment in an amount according to proof.

22 48. In making said disclosures, UBS was guilty of oppression and malice. UBS
23 engaged in said conduct in conscious disregard of plaintiff's rights, and in violation of 24 Civil Code §§1709 and 3343. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of exemplary
25 damages.

26 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

27 (Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress)

28 (As Against All Defendants)

-8-

COMPLAINT

49. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, 7, 21 through 36, and 41 through 47 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

50. The actions of UBS were outrageous and intentional and done with malice and reckless disregard of the likelihood of causing the plaintiff to suffer severe emotional distress.

51. As a proximate result of the aforementioned outrageous acts of UBS, plaintiff has suffered emotional damage. Additionally, as a proximate result of UBS's aforementioned outrageous acts, plaintiff has been unable to work and will be unable to work in her profession and occupation.

52. As a proximate result of the aforementioned outrageous acts of the defendant(s), plaintiff has suffered general and special damages in the sums to be proved at trial.

53. In doing the acts herein alleged, UBS acted knowingly, intentionally, and maliciously. UBS engaged in said conduct in conscious disregard of plaintiff's rights, and in violation of Civil Code §§1709 and 3343. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of exemplary damages.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing)

(As Against All Defendants)

54. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, 7, 21 through 36, and 41 through 47 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

55. By its aforesaid conduct, UBS breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing of its contract with plaintiff.

56. As a proximate result of the aforementioned conduct, plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount be proved at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff for judgment as follows:

1. For compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial;
2. With respect to the First, Third, Fourth and Fifth Causes of Action, for

1 punitive and exemplary damages according to proof;

2 3. With respect to all causes of action:

- 3 a. For pre-judgment interest as allowed by law;
- 4 b. For attorney fees and costs as authorized by law;
- 5 c. For costs of suit herein incurred; and
- 6 d. For such other and further relief as the court deems proper.

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 Plaintiff, for her First Amended Complaint, alleges:

2 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

3 1. Plaintiff, GAIL STRUTHERS, is an individual who resides and at times relevant
4 hereto resided in the State of California, County of San Diego, and City of San Diego.

5 2. Defendant, UBS FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC. ("UBS," not in italics), is and at 6 all times relevant herein was, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of 7 Delaware, which does business in the State of California and has a principal place of
8 business in the County of San Diego.

9 3. Plaintiff does not know the true names and capacities, whether individual,
10 corporate, or otherwise, of the Defendants designated herein as DOES 1 through 10 at 11 this time and sues said defendants herein under fictitious names. Each of them is a
12 resident of and/or transacts business in California. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to 13 show the true names and capacities of said DOES when ascertained. Plaintiff is 14 informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the DOES is indebted
15 to plaintiff as hereinafter alleged, and that plaintiff's rights against such fictitiously
16 named Defendants arise from such indebtedness. All references in this pleading to 17 UBS shall include these fictitiously named Doe Defendants.

18 4. With respect to each allegation contained herein that plaintiff alleges on 19 information and belief, said allegation is likely to have evidentiary support after Plaintiff
20 is given a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery.

21 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that each of
22 Defendants DOES 1 through 10 was the agent, partner, servant and/or employee of
23 each of the other Defendants, and acted or failed to act as herein alleged in the course
24 and scope of said agency, authority, partnership, and/or employment.

25 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Intentional Misrepresentation)

27 (As Against All Defendants)

28 6. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, above,

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

2 7. Before March 7, 2006, plaintiff was a securities broker employed at Morgan
3 Stanley, with $55 million in assets under management. Plaintiff was generating
4 approximately $529,000 per year in revenue, from which her take-home compensation
5 was over $300,000 per year, plus benefits and pension & 401-K contributions. She was
6 the No. 1 revenue-producing broker for her years of experience in Morgan Stanley, and,
7 in that capacity, spoke at Morgan Stanley's annual national conference in 2005.

8 8. To induce plaintiff to resign from Morgan Stanley and become employed by 9 UBS, Toby Ferner ("Ferner"), an agent of UBS, made material representations to her.
10 These representations included, but were not limited to, the following:

- 11 a. That UBS would accommodate plaintiff's occasional extended need to work and 12 place customers' orders by computer from her home; and 13 b. That UBS would pay plaintiff the equivalent of her then-gross commissions 14 (approximately $529,000) – $396,717.00 in cash and $132,239 in stock – in 15 exchange for her agreement to a promissory note ("Note") as to the $396,717.00
16 in cash, which Note would be forgiven in annual installments over a six-year
17 period of employment. As a matter of English usage, the representation that 18 plaintiff would have to sign such Note did not connote, mean or otherwise
19 indicate that said Note would contain provisions (i) that plaintiff had to submit all
20 employment disputes to binding arbitration and (ii) that UBS could terminate her
21 employment at any time with or without cause.

22 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges as follows: At the 23 time of said representations UBS knew that the said Note would contain provisions (i)
24 requiring that plaintiff submit all employment disputes to compulsory and binding
25 arbitration, thereby waiving her right to a jury trial under the California Constitution, (ii)
26 that plaintiff was on 'at will' employee subject to discharge at UBS's will, and (iii) other
27 terms and conditions that did not relate to the Note or the repayment of said Note.
28 Before and during the events in question herein, UBS customarily used one or more

-3-

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 boilerplate promissory note forms that contained such arbitration and "at will" provisions
2 in connection with the hiring of other individuals.

3 10. UBS failed to reveal and suppressed the information described in ¶ 9, above.
4 The suppression of this information was likely to and did mislead plaintiff in resigning
5 from her employment with Moran Stanley and accepting employment with UBS.

6 11. In the alternative, UBS made the representations referred to in ¶ 8 in absolute
7 and unqualified terms, thereby communicating to plaintiff that UBS knew such 8 representations to be true, when in fact UBS did not know whether such
9 representations were true or false.

10 12. In the alternative, when UBS made such representations to plaintiff, UBS 11 was duty bound to speak the whole truth known to it concerning such matters in that:

- 12 a. UBS had exclusive knowledge of material facts not known to plaintiff and knew 13 that such facts were unknown to plaintiff or were beyond her reach;
14 b. UBS as the prospective employer had a fiduciary or quasi-fiduciary duty of 15 disclosure to a prospective employee under the circumstances; and/or 16 c. UBS had the duty to be truthful and the failure to disclose facts which 17 materially qualify those stated is the telling of a half-truth.

18 13. The aforesaid representations were material in that each and all of them were 19 matters that would influence a reasonable person's decision to resign from employment
20 and accept employment with a new employer in the circumstances. In the alternative, 21 they were matters that plaintiff was likely to regard as important in making such
22 decisions. Had plaintiff known the true facts, she would not have resigned from her
23 employment at Morgan Stanley, would not have accepted employment with UBS, and 24 would not have signed the Note containing the arbitration agreement.

25 14. UBS knew that the above representations, including but not limited to those 26 alleged in subparagraphs 8a and 8b, were false. As to the representations referred to 27 in subparagraph 8a, Mr. Ferner at the time of his representation had no intention to 28 permit plaintiff to place customer orders from her home computer. As to the

1 representations referred to in subparagraph 8b, UBS knew these were false for the 2 reasons stated in ¶¶ 9 and 10 and, alternatively, in ¶¶ 11-13.

3 15. UBS intended that plaintiff would rely on said representations and would resign
 4 from her employment with Morgan Stanley and become employed by UBS.

5 16. Plaintiff justifiably relied on said representations and the absence of the above
 6 described omitted information in resigning from her employment with Moran Stanley
 7 and accepting employment with UBS.

8 17. Unknown to plaintiff at the time, said representations were false. Had she
 9 known the true facts, she would not have resigned from her employment with Morgan
 10 Stanley, would not have accepted employment with UBS, and would not have signed
 11 the Note containing the arbitration agreement.

12 18. Upon plaintiff's employment with UBS, she was required to sign a Note that 13 contained the unrelated provisions described in ¶ 9 above. UBS refused to 14 accommodate her occasional extended need to work and place customers' orders by 15 computer from her home. UBS failed to comply with numerous other working 16 conditions that it had represented would apply to plaintiff.

17 19. As a proximate result of the foregoing, plaintiff has suffered damages in a
 18 monetary amount to be proven at trial.

19 20. Based on the foregoing, UBS's aforementioned conduct constituted willful and
 20 intentional misrepresentations, deceit, or concealment of material facts known to
 21 Defendants within the meaning of Civil Code §1572. In addition, UBS engaged in said
 22 conduct maliciously in that it did so in conscious disregard of plaintiff's rights.
 23 Accordingly, Defendant's conduct justifies an award of exemplary and punitive
 24 damages under Civil Code §3294.

25 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Negligent Misrepresentation)

27 (As Against All Defendants)

28 21. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, 7

-5-

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 through 13, and 15 through 19 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

2 22. When UBS made the said representations, it had no reasonable grounds for
3 believing them to be true.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (For Violation of Plaintiff's Rights Under the Fair Employment and Housing Law)

6 (As Against All Defendants)

7 23. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, and 7
8 through 9 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

9 24. During plaintiff's employment at Morgan Stanley, she became acquainted with
10 Mr. Toby Ferner (herein, "Ferner"), another broker employed by Morgan Stanley.

11 25. Ferner left the employment of Morgan Stanley to become the manager of 12 UBS's Carlsbad, California office. At all times mentioned herein, Ferner was Vice
13 President and Branch Manager of UBS's Carlsbad, California office.

14 26. In 2006, Ferner approached plaintiff with a proposal that she move from
15 Morgan Stanley to UBS.

16 27. At all times during her career with Morgan Stanley, plaintiff had and still has a
17 mental disability, commonly known as 'bi-polar disorder.' That disability is controllable
18 with medication that plaintiff takes and posed no difficulty at Morgan Stanley, where
19 plaintiff was permitted to work from her home when necessary either because of the bi-
20 polar disorder or because plaintiff has children that she must care for.

21 28. Before becoming employed by UBS, plaintiff informed Ferner of the bi-polar
22 disorder and of her occasional need to work from home due to it and due to her
23 children. Plaintiff further informed Ferner that, for these reasons, plaintiff would
24 occasionally need to work and place customers' orders from her home. In the course of
25 dealings that led to her employment with UBS, Ferner represented that UBS would
26 accommodate plaintiff's said need to work and place customers' orders from her home.

27 29. On or about March 7, 2006, the plaintiff commenced employment with UBS as
28 a financial advisor in its Carlsbad, California office.

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 30. Approximately simultaneous with plaintiff's commencement of employment,
2 UBS also hired a financial advisor whose first name is Mike, but whose full name and
3 location are currently unknown to plaintiff.

4 31. In or about the spring and early summer of 2006, Mike engaged a course of
5 sexual harassment of plaintiff and other female employees in UBS's Carlsbad,
6 California office. Mike engaged in said harassment with the actual and constructive
7 knowledge and consent of Defendant UBS.

8 32. Mike's sexual harassment of the plaintiff consisted of sexual advances and
9 demands, sexual assault, and sexually degrading remarks to plaintiff. Mike engaged in
10 similar conduct with respect to other women in UBS's Carlsbad, California office.

11 33. Within approximately one month after being hired, plaintiff began complaining
12 to Ferner about the above sexual harassment of plaintiff and other female employees in
13 UBS's Carlsbad, California office. Ferner took no action with respect to Mike's sexual
14 harassment and, when plaintiff complained that Mike sexually assaulted her, Ferner
15 stated that plaintiff could "take it" or could "take care of [herself]" or words to that effect.

16 34. In retaliation for plaintiff's complaints about Mike's sexual harassment, Ferner
17 on behalf of UBS took numerous actions against plaintiff which eventually resulted in an
18 environment in the Carlsbad office that was so hostile to plaintiff that plaintiff was
19 unable to continue working in that office. These included, but are not limited to the
20 following: Ferner violated plaintiff's medical privacy, both within the office and outside.
21 Disclosures concerning plaintiff's medical condition were made to plaintiff's Sales
22 Assistant. In addition, UBS disclosed a series of adverse communications about
23 plaintiff's personnel status to her Sales Assistant who then sent them to plaintiff. The
24 said violations of privacy as to plaintiff's Sales Assistant not only made it impossible for
25 plaintiff to work with the Sales Assistant, but also subjected plaintiff to humiliation and
26 ridicule, and caused plaintiff to become a virtual pariah among the staff that plaintiff
27 depended on. In addition, Ferner made defamatory statements about plaintiff to people
28 in other securities firms, and to at least one of plaintiff's customers. On information and

-7-

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 belief, plaintiff further alleges that Ferner made defamatory innuendos about her to
2 others. When plaintiff asked that Ferner honor the agreement that UBS would
3 accommodate her need to work and place orders from her home Ferner refused. This
4 refusal continued even after plaintiff's doctor sent UBS a letter in September 2006
5 stating that due to plaintiff's medical disability and the environment in the Carlsbad
6 office, she needed to work from home. Another example of the retaliation was that
7 Ferner began dealing directly with plaintiff's customers and attempted to persuade them
8 to switch their accounts to Ferner or to other brokers in the office.

9 35. As a result of the foregoing and other wrongful conduct by Ferner and UBS,
10 plaintiff entered treatment and continues to be treated for mental disability due to the
11 foregoing events. On or about October 31, 2006, plaintiff wrote to Ferner (i) describing
12 the foregoing and other intolerable working conditions and UBS's numerous breaches
13 of agreements, (ii) informing him that these matters had caused plaintiff to suffer mental
14 disability and (iii) that plaintiff's physician had advised that she was not to return to work
15 under the existing working conditions. Despite the October 31, 2006 letter and Ferner's
16 knowledge that the medical disability prevented plaintiff from reporting for work in his
17 office, Ferner continued to retaliate against plaintiff by repeatedly insisting that she
18 report to work by certain specific dates. This continued even after plaintiff's physician
19 submitted a letter from my doctor advising that plaintiff was disabled and unable to
20 report for work.

21 36. Ultimately, plaintiff was placed on leave status and continued in that status
22 from January 2007 through mid-May 2007. UBS provided plaintiff no documentation as
23 to the leave status or its length or expiration date. There was no communication
24 between plaintiff and UBS during the period of January 2007 through mid-May 2007.

25 37. From January 2007 through May 2007 and thereafter continuing to this date,
26 plaintiff has been under treatment for mental disability by her physician and mental
27 health professionals, including psychiatrists. Plaintiff's mental disability increased in
28 severity to the point that she was hospitalized from May 11 through May 17, 2007.

1 38. During that hospitalization, UBS on May 14, 2007, wrote to plaintiff stating that
2 her medical leave had expired on May 1, 2007, that she was required to report for work
3 in Ferner's office on that date, that she failed to report, and that, as a result, she was
4 being discharged from UBS's employment, effective May 15, 2007.

5 39. By this reference, plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in ¶ 8,
6 subparagraph 8b, and ¶ 9 as if set forth fully herein. On May 25, 2007, UBS made
7 written demand that plaintiff repay the unforgiven balance of that Note, despite a
8 provision that the Note would be forgiven if UBS discharged plaintiff due to disability. In 9 addition, due to the discharge, plaintiff forfeited the $132,239 in stock.

10 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that at 11 approximately the same time as the above-described termination of her employment,
12 UBS publicly disclosed that her employment had been terminated. Said public
13 disclosure was not in response to any special request for such information. In the 14 circumstances, said public disclosure contained a false representation that plaintiff's
15 employment was terminated for wrongdoing.

16 41. UBS, by its aforesaid conduct, has violated plaintiff's rights under the California
17 Fair Employment and Housing Act, Government Code §§ 12900 et seq.

18 42. As a direct and proximate result of UBS's conduct, plaintiff has suffered
19 damage in an amount to be proved at trial. Among other things, UBS's above conduct
20 has caused Plaintiff to suffer emotional distress, humiliation, and mental anguish and 21 has prevented and will in the future prevent plaintiff from obtaining employment in the 22 securities industry for the remainder of her career.

23 43. As alleged in the original Complaint, ¶39, Plaintiff has filed more than one
24 charge of discrimination with the California Department of Fair Employment and 25 Housing. On December 11, 2006, based on advice and instructions from her then-
26 attorney, Plaintiff tendered for filing by U. S. Mail a charge of discrimination based on 27 the above actions that UBS engaged in during calendar year 2006. Plaintiff is informed 28 and believes and based thereon alleges that said charge was properly addressed, with

1 postage fully prepaid, and arrived at the San Diego office of the California Department
2 of Fair Employment and Housing ["DFEH"], but was not docketed or processed through
3 the oversight of the DFEH. By the time that a right to sue letter would have been
4 received from the DFEH, had the charge been properly handled at the DFEH, Plaintiff
5 was without legal representation and unable to comprehend the situation or the 6 consequence of receiving no right to sue letter due to the disability caused and/or
7 exacerbated by UBS. Plaintiff did not become aware of the non-docketing of said
8 December 2006 charge until on or about February 25, 2008.

9 44. On or about March 5, 2008, Plaintiff filed her second charge of discrimination
10 against UBS with the DFEH, this time through counsel, utilizing the DFEH Internet-
11 based, automated charge filing system. The second charge is based on all wrongful
12 conduct of UBS, including the continuing violations that began in 2006 and continued
13 through portions of calendar year 2007; such as her termination and UBS's demand
14 that she repay the above-described loan in May 2007. A true and correct copy of the 15 right to sue letter obtained as to the second charge is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

16 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Invasion of Privacy)

18 (As Against All Defendants)

19 45. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, 7 and 24
20 through 38 and 40 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

21 46. Plaintiff had a reasonable expectation of privacy in the medical information she 22 disclosed to Mr. Ferner and to UBS.

23 47. Plaintiff had an expectation of privacy in the personnel information generated
24 and maintained by Mr. Ferner and UBS as to her employment at UBS.

25 48. UBS's disclosures of private information concerning plaintiff's medical disability
26 and personnel matters violated plaintiff's privacy.

27 49. The disclosures by defendant were public disclosures.

28 50. The facts so disclosed were private facts that plaintiff desired to keep private.

1 51. The disclosure by defendant of the above facts would be highly offensive to a
2 reasonable person in plaintiff's position.

3 52. UBS knew, or acted with reckless disregard of the fact, that a reasonable
4 person in Struthers' position would consider said public disclosure highly offensive.

5 53. The said information did not have a substantial connection to a matter of 6 legitimate public concern.

7 54. Plaintiff was harmed in that she was scorned and abandoned by her business
8 associates, exposed to contempt and ridicule, and suffered loss of reputation and 9 standing in the community.

10 55. In addition, plaintiff has suffered injury to her business and employment in an 11 amount according to proof. Among other things, UBS's public disclosure of plaintiff's 12 termination has prevented and will in the future prevent plaintiff from obtaining 13 employment in the securities industry for the remainder of her career.

14 56. UBS's above conduct was a substantial factor in causing plaintiff's harm.

15 57. In making said disclosures, UBS was guilty of oppression and malice. UBS
16 engaged in said conduct in conscious disregard of plaintiff's rights, and in violation of 17 Civil Code §§1709 and 3343. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of exemplary damages
18 pursuant to Civil Code §3294.

19 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress)

21 (As Against All Defendants)

22 58. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, 7, 8a, 24
23 through 38, 40, 46, 47, and 49 through 56 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set
24 forth herein.

25 59. The actions of UBS were outrageous.

26 60. UBS intended to cause plaintiff emotional distress or were performed with 27 reckless disregard of the probability that plaintiff would severe emotional distress.

28 61. Plaintiff has suffered emotional damage. Among other things, plaintiff has

-II-

1 been unable to work and will be unable to work in her profession and occupation.

2 62. UBS's aforementioned outrageous conduct was a substantial factor in causing
3 plaintiff emotional distress and resulting damages in an amount to be proved at trial.

4 63. In doing the acts herein alleged, UBS acted knowingly, intentionally, and
5 maliciously in that UBS engaged in said conduct in conscious disregard of plaintiff's
6 rights. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of punitive and exemplary damages under 7 Civil Code §3294.

8 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing)

10 (As Against All Defendants)

11 64. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference ¶ 1 through 5, 7, 24 through 40,
12 46, 47, and 49 through 56 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

13 65. By its aforesaid conduct, UBS breached the implied covenant of good faith and 14 fair dealing of its contract with plaintiff.

15 66. As a proximate result of the aforementioned conduct, plaintiff has suffered
16 damages in an amount be proved at trial.

17 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Partial Rescission)

19 (As Against All Defendants)

20 67. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5 and 7
21 through 18 above, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

22 68. As alleged above, UBS concealed, suppressed, and failed to disclose the 23 material terms of the Note until after she had resigned from her employment with 24 Morgan Stanley. As a condition of employing her, UBS for the first time presented her
25 with a Note that contained provisions that went far beyond what UBS had represented
26 the Note was to contain. Said undisclosed terms included provisions for compulsory 27 arbitration of employment disputes and for 'at will' employment status.

28 69. When UBS presented plaintiff with said Note, after she had resigned from her

-12-

1 employment with Morgan Stanley, plaintiff had no alternative other than to agree to and
2 execute them.

3 70. Based on the foregoing, plaintiff's apparent consents to compulsory arbitration
4 of all employment disputes, the 'at will' employment agreement, and all provisions
5 contained in the UBS Note other than the terms of the Note and forgiveness thereof
6 were not real, mutual, or free in that they were obtained through deceit and economic 7 duress.

8 NOTICE OF RESCISSION AND DEMAND FOR RETURN OF CONSIDERATION:

9 71. With respect to each of the above grounds for partial rescission, plaintiff would 10 not have consented to the above portions of the Note had it not been for the 11 circumstances alleged above. Accordingly, plaintiff is entitled to rescind those portions
12 of the written contract. Since neither party has given consideration for those portions of 13 the Note, there is no consideration to be returned.

14 72. As a result of the foregoing, all portions of the Note other than the terms of the 15 loan, payment, and forgiveness of the amount due should be rescinded.

16 DEMAND FOR DAMAGES:

17 35. Etesse also intends service of this complaint to serve as a demand against 18 Curran under Civil Code §1692 for consequential damages caused by UBS's conduct,
19 in an amount to be proved at trial.

20 36. Based on the facts alleged in the above paragraphs, UBS's aforementioned
21 conduct constituted willful and intentional misrepresentations, deceit, and concealment
22 of material facts known to UBS. In addition, UBS's conduct constituted malice in that it
23 was carried on by UBS with a willful and conscious disregard of plaintiff's rights.
24 Accordingly, UBS's conduct justifies an award of exemplary and punitive damages
25 under Civil Code §3294.

26 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

27 (Unlawfully Preventing Employment by Misrepresentation)

28 (As Against All Defendants)

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

1 73. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 5, 7, 24
2 through 38, and 40, and re-alleges them as if fully set forth herein.

3 74. As a proximate result of the public disclosure of UBS's termination of plaintiff's
4 employment, without any special request for such disclosure, plaintiff has been
5 prevented from obtaining employment as a broker or the equivalent in the securities
6 industry for the remainder of her working life, to plaintiff's damage in an amount to be 7 proven at trial.

8 75. Said public disclosure violated Labor Code §§ 1050 and 1053. Accordingly,
9 plaintiff is entitled to treble damages as provided in Labor Code § 1054.

10 76. Said public disclosure constituted willful and intentional misrepresentation, 11 deceit, and concealment of material facts known to UBS within the meaning of Civil 12 Code §1572. In addition, UBS engaged in said conduct maliciously in that it did so with 13 a willful and conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. Accordingly, UBS conduct justifies
14 an award of exemplary and punitive damages under Civil Code §3294.

15 ALLEGATIONS CONCERNING THE COURT'S JURISDICTION TO DETERMINE
16 THE ARBITRABILITY OF THIS ACTION

17 77. UBS's misrepresentation and deceit, as alleged in ¶¶ 7-18 above, not only go to 18 the inducement of the contract, but also specifically caused plaintiff to execute of the 19 arbitration agreement.

20 78. Plaintiff's duress, as alleged in ¶¶ 68-72 above, specifically caused plaintiff to 21 execute the arbitration agreement.

22 79. Under both the Federal Arbitration Act and California Supreme Court law, 23 where a party's fraud or duress goes to the making of the arbitration agreement, this
24 court has jurisdiction under Code of Civil Procedure §1281.2(b) to determine that said
25 fraud and/or duress are "grounds for revocation" of the arbitration agreement.

26 80. Under Code of Civil Procedure §1281.2(c), this court has jurisdiction to 27 determine that the entire controversy shall be tried before this Court.

28

1 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff for judgment as follows:

- 2 1. For compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial as to all 3 causes of action;
- 4 2. With respect to the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Eighth Causes of Action, for 5 punitive and exemplary damages according to proof;
- 6 3. With respect to the Eighth Cause of Action, for treble damages;
- 7 4. With respect to all causes of action:
- 8 a. For pre-judgment interest as allowed by law;
- 9 b. For attorney fees and costs as authorized by law;
- 10 c. For costs of suit herein incurred; and
- 11 d. For such other and f

SAN DIEGO, CA 92111

RE: E200708D5077-00
STRUTHERS/UBS FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC.

Dear STRUTHERS, GAIL:

NOTICE OF CASE CLOSURE

This letter informs that the above-referenced complaint that was filed with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) has been closed effective March 05, 2008 because an immediate right-to-sue notice was requested. DFEH will take no further action on the complaint.

This letter is also the Right-To-Sue Notice. According to Government Code section 12965, subdivision (b), a civil action may be brought under the provisions of the Fair Employment and Housing Act against the person, employer, labor organization or employment agency named in the above-referenced complaint. The civil action must be filed within one year from the date of this letter.

If a federal notice of Right-To-Sue is wanted, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) must be visited to file a complaint within 30 days of receipt of this DFEH Notice of Case Closure or within 300 days of the alleged discriminatory act, whichever is earlier.

CASE NO. 37-2008-00079382-CU-BT-CTL

[Complaint Filed: March 6, 2008]

[Amended Complaint Filed: June 30, 2008]

DEFENDANT UBS FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.'S ANSWER TO FIRST
AMENDED COMPLAINT

22 Defendant UBS Financial Services Inc. (improperly pled as "UBS Financial Services, 23 Inc.) hereby answers the First Amended Complaint on behalf of itself and no other party.

24 GENERAL DENIAL

25 Defendant denies, generally and specifically, each and every allegation contained in each
26 and every cause of action alleged against it in the First Amended Complaint pursuant to 27 California Code of Civil Procedure 431.30(d). Defendant further denies that Plaintiff has 28 sustained damages in the sum or sums alleged, or in any sum, or at all, by reason of any act or omission, or purported act or omission of Defendant.¹

- 51 -

¹ Plaintiff simultaneously served the First Amended Complaint with the initial Complaint. As the First Amended Complaint supersedes Plaintiff's initial Complaint, UBSFS submits this general denial and its affirmative defenses in response to the First Amended Complaint. To the extent required, UBSFS similarly denies, generally and specifically, each and every allegation contained in each and every cause of action alleged against it in the initial Complaint pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 431.30(d).

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(FAILURE TO STATE A CLAIM)

1. Neither the First Amended Complaint nor any cause of action contained therein states sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action against Defendant.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(UNCLEAN HANDS)

2. Plaintiff may not seek relief from this Court because she has unclean hands.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(WAIVER)

3. Plaintiff may not seek relief from this Court because her claims are subject to the doctrine of waiver.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(LACHES)

4. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of laches.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(ESTOPPEL)

5. Plaintiff may not seek relief from this Court because her claims, or any of them, are subject to the doctrine of estoppel.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(FAILURE TO MITIGATE)

6. Plaintiff has failed to mitigate her damages, and to the extent of such failure to mitigate, any damages awarded to Plaintiff should be reduced accordingly.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS)

7. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations, including without limitation, Code of Civil Procedure § 340.

///

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(FAILURE TO PERFORM)

8. Assuming an oral agreement of employment existed between Plaintiff and Defendant, which Defendant denies, any failure by Defendant to perform any obligations resulted from Plaintiff's failure to perform her own obligations as required by the terms of that alleged agreement, and the performance on Plaintiff's part of her own obligations was a condition precedent to or concurrent with the performance of Defendant's obligations.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(BREACH)

9. Any acts not performed by Defendant are excused by material breaches by Plaintiff.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(CONDITIONS PRECEDENT, CONCURRENT OR SUBSEQUENT)

10. Plaintiff has failed to perform conditions precedent, concurrent, or subsequent to any contract on which her claims are based.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(PERFORMANCE)

11. Plaintiff's claims are barred because Defendant has performed or substantially performed under any alleged contract upon which Plaintiff purports to sue.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(CONTRIBUTORY NEGLIGENCE)

12. Plaintiff's claims are barred because any damages she sustained are the result of her own negligence.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(INDEPENDENT INTERVENING ACT)

13. Plaintiff's claims are barred because any damage she sustained was caused by an independent intervening act.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(MANDATORY ARBITRATION)

14. Plaintiff and Defendant are parties to an agreement that chooses arbitration as a forum for resolving her claims. Plaintiff is therefore barred from her relief by her failure to pursue or exhaust her claims through mandatory arbitration.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(INSUFFICIENCY OF PROCESS AND SERVICE OF PROCESS)

15. The First Amended Complaint is barred by the insufficiency of process and insufficiency of service of process.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(NO ATTORNEY'S FEES, PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES)

16. Plaintiff cannot recover attorney's fees or punitive damages or exemplary damages under applicable law.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE SECTION 1692)

17. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by California Civil Code section 1692.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(STATUTE OF FRAUDS)

18. Recovery based on any alleged employment agreement, to the extent it relies on any oral statement(s), is barred by the statute of frauds.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(FAILURE TO EXHAUST ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES)

19. Plaintiff's claims are barred because the applicable administrative procedures and conditions precedent were not properly effectuated or complied with prior to the commencement of this action, including, without limitation, those requirements set forth by Government Code section 12960(d),

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(ADDITIONAL DEFENSES)

20. Defendant reserves the right to assert additional affirmative defenses in the event discovery indicates that additional affirmative defenses are available.

WHEREFORE, Defendant prays for judgment as follows:

1. That the Court enter an Order compelling Plaintiff to arbitrate her claims before the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.
2. That the First Amended Complaint, and each purported count, be dismissed with prejudice.
3. That judgment be entered in favor of Defendant and against Plaintiff.
4. That Defendant be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees together with the costs of this action.
5. That Defendant be awarded such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
